

Patricia MacIsaac

Posted At : March 17, 2015 1:18 AM | Posted By : Tim Brunson, PhD

Related Categories: Who's Who

Patricia MacIsaac owns and operates South Shore Hypnosis Center in Hingham, Massachusetts.

Patricia is a certified instructor for the National Guild of Hypnotists, teaching both the basic and advanced courses. Pat also holds a third degree in the Usui Shiki Ryoho REIKI method of natural healing.

Patricia is the recipient of the National Guild of Hypnotists' 1993 Meritorious Service Award. In December 1993, Pat's picture appeared on the cover of the Journal of Hypnotism, the quarterly publication of the National Guild of Hypnotists that is distributed internationally, and was featured in an interview in that edition. Pat has been a speaker at the National Guild of Hypnotists' Convention & Educational Conferences for the last several years.

In August 1995, Pat was named Instructor of the Year by the National Guild of Hypnotists. In August 1998, Patricia was appointed to the National Guild of Hypnotists' Advisory Board. Pat has been an Adjunct Faculty Member for many years, and was specifically asked to teach the Certification Course at the NGH Educational Conference by the NGH President, Dr. Dwight Damon, for the last nine years, including 2006. In February 2005, Patricia became a Board Certified Hypnotist, having successfully passed her oral and written exams in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Pat was named Educator of the Year at the 2006 NGH Convention and was presented with the Hypnotism Hallmark Award. She was one of the 2006 Order of Braid inductees. She also was named as a Board Certified Hypnotist Examiner.

For more information, visit www.sshc.net