Roch Preite is a member in good standing of the National Guild of Hypnotists and a member of the National Federation of Hypnotists. He has submitted an article to be published in the Journal of Hypnotism, and will be a frequent contributor to that publication. He is currently working towards his Board Certification.

He did his Hypnosis Certification training at the New York Awareness Center on 72nd Street in New York City. Because of his personal life experience he is uniquely qualified to work with people who want to lose weight or who have already achieved their goal weight and wish to maintain it.

His easy to talk to, and open manner makes his interaction with his clients always a pleasant experience. His reassuring voice and hypnotic tone when "in session", reach his clients on a deep subconscious level easily and quickly making achieving the deepest hypnotic states attainable for most all subjects.

Roch Preite subscribes to the policies and principals of the National Guild of Hypnotists code of Ethics and Standards of Practice. Each client will receive a copy of their "Bill of Rights" as set forth by the Guild.
